

In a General Convention,

Begun and holden at the Capitol, in the City of Williamsburg, on Monday the sixth day of May, one Thousand seven hundred and seventy six, and continued, by adjournments, to the day of June following.

A Constitution, or form of Government, agreed to and resolved upon by the Delegates and Representatives of the several Counties and Corporations of Virginia.

Whereas George the Third, King of Great Britain and Ireland, and Elector of Hanover, heretofore intrusted with the exercise of the Kingly Office in this Government, hath endeavoured to pervert the same into a detestable and insupportable Tyranny, by putting his negative on Laws the most wholesome and necessary for the publick good;

by denying his Governor's permission to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation for his assent, and, when so suspended, neglecting to attend to them for many Years;

by refusing to pass certain other Laws, unless the persons to be benefited by them would relinquish the inestimable right of Representation in the Legislature;

by dissolving legislative assemblies repeatedly and continually, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions of the Rights of the people;

when dissolved, by refusing to call others for a long space of time, thereby leaving the political system without any legislative head;

by endeavouring to prevent the population of our Country, and for that purpose, obstructing the laws for the naturalization of foreigners;

by keeping among us, in times of peace, standing Armies and ships of War;

by affecting to render the Military independent of, and superior to, the civil power;

by combining with others to subject us to a foreign Jurisdiction, giving his assent to their pretended Acts of Legislation; for quartering large bodies of armed troops among us;

for cutting off our Trade with all parts of the World;

for

for imposing Taxes on us without our Consent; for depriving us of the Benefits of Trial by Jury;
for transporting us beyond Seas, to be tried for pretended Offences;
for suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all Cases whatsoever; by plundering our Seas, ravaging our Coasts, burning our Towns, and destroying the lives of our People; by inciting insurrections of our fellow Subjects, with the allurements of forfeiture and confiscation; by prompting our Negroes to rise in Arms among us, those very negroes whom, by an inhuman use of his Negative, he hath refused us permission to include by Law; by endeavouring to bring on the inhabitants of our Frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of Warfare is an indistinguished Destruction of all Ages, Sexes, and Conditions of Existence; by transporting, at this time, a large Army of foreign Mercenaries, to complete the Works of Death, desolation, and Tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty and Perfidy unworthy the head of a civilized Nation;
by answering our repeated Petitions for Redress with a Repetition of Injuries;

and finally, by abandoning the Helm of Government, and declaring us out of his Allegiance and Protection,

By which several Acts of Misrule, the Government of this Country, as formerly exercised under the Crown of Great Britain, is totally dissolved; We therefore, the Delegates and Representatives of the good People of Virginia, having maturely considered the Premises, and viewing with great concern the deplorable condition to which this once happy Country must be reduced, unless some regular adequate Mode of civil Polity is speedily adopted, and in Compliance with a Recommendation of the General Congress, do ordain and declare the future Form of Government of Virginia to be as followeth;

The legislative, executive, and judicial departments, shall be separate and distinct, so that neither exercise the Powers

21 The other shall be called the Senate, and consist of twenty-four members, of whom thirteen shall constitute a House to proceed on Business for whose election the different Counties shall be divided into twenty-four districts, and each County of the respective District, at the time of the election of its Delegates, shall vote for one Senator, ~~for the House of Delegates~~, who is actually a resident and freeholder within the District, or duly qualified according to Law, and is upwards of twenty-five years of age; And the Sheriff of each County, within five days at farthest after the last County election in the District, shall meet at some convenient place, and from the Poll so taken in their respective Counties return as a Scrutator the names of Senators the Man who shall have the greatest number of votes in the whole District.
